OPEN EDUCATIONAL RESOURCES (OER)

educational materials that may be freely accessed, reused, modified and shared.
A consortium of 13 African universities… involving 700 teacher educators.

It works across 12 African countries — by creating teacher education materials in Arabic, English, French and Kiswahili.

QUESTIONNAIRE SURVEY

Responses from ~ 100 countries so far

(82 by the cut-off date of 16 April)
Sarah Hoosen
“There appears to be great interest in OER across all regions of the world, with several countries embarking on notable OER initiatives. Indeed, the survey itself raised interest and awareness of OER in countries that may not have had much prior exposure to the concept.”

Exploring the Business Case for OER

Prepared by Neil Butcher and Sarah Hoosen for the Commonwealth of Learning
The Business Case for OER

- Resource-based learning
- OER reduce costs
- Better approaches to textbooks
…there appears to be some confusion regarding understanding of the concept and potential of OER.

Many projects are geared to allowing online access to digitized educational content, but the materials themselves do not appear to be explicitly stated as OER.

Where licences are open, the Creative Commons framework appears to be the most widely used licensing framework, but licensing options varies between countries.

Declaration
THE AIM

“to encourage governments to promote OER and the use of open licences…

(because)

…governments will be major beneficiaries thanks to the potential of OER to improve the cost-effectiveness of their large investments in education.”
