Adviser: Open Schooling

Grade: C1
Reports to: Director: Education
Type of Contract: Fixed Term
Duration of Contract: 3 years
Location: Burnaby, British Columbia

Commonwealth of Learning (COL) helps governments and institutions to expand the scale, efficiency and quality of learning by using new approaches, appropriate technologies and open and distance learning methodologies. Headquartered in British Columbia, Canada, COL promotes innovation and works with international partners to facilitate learning in support of sustainable development. It is financed by voluntary contributions from Commonwealth Member States.

Overview of the Position:

The Adviser: Open Schooling will develop and implement activities to promote secondary education using open, distance and technology-based approaches in accordance with COL’s Strategic Plan. This involves providing technical advice to institutions and organisations on policy and supporting the development of models, capacity and content to ensure that more boys and girls have access to quality secondary schooling. The Adviser will help develop creative models and work in partnership with diverse stakeholders in Member States to advance COL’s outcomes and impact.

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Conceptualises, manages and implements activities related to the Open Schooling initiative through creative approaches that harness the potential of open, distance and technology-enabled learning to increase access to quality education and training for girls/women and boys/men. This involves delivering on a strategic plan with achievable results, formulating an annual action plan with budgets based on the plan, providing regular updates on all activities, authorising expenditures within assigned budgets and defined limits that achieve value for money, and actively participating in evidence building through the monitoring and evaluation of all activities on an on-going basis within a Results-based Management (RBM) framework.

- Manages the implementation strategy for assigned activities and project(s). This includes working as a team with the Education sector and other staff to ensure a cohesive approach to activities within the programme, collecting evidence of approaches used, identifying new ideas, selecting partners and managing consultants, maintaining good relationships with key stakeholders, leveraging other sources of support including raising additional funds, and organising logistics.

- Provides guidance and direction to a diverse range of stakeholders on the design and implementation of open schooling models/systems and policies to provide cost-effective and quality secondary education, especially for those from remote and marginalised communities. The emphasis is on innovation and technology to leverage available resources for maximum impact.

- Contributes to COL’s overall mission and corporate life in planning, stakeholder engagement, and internal processes by providing advice in areas of expertise and by representing COL’s interests at international forums.

- Ensures direct report(s) have clear work plans and conducts performance appraisals on staff who work in the area.

- Performs other duties related to COL’s programme or activities as required.
