

Position Title: Education Specialist: Higher Education

Grade: B

Reports to: Director: Education

Duration of Contract: Three-year term

Location: Burnaby, British Columbia

Commonwealth of Learning (COL) helps governments and institutions to expand the scale, efficiency and quality of learning by using new approaches, appropriate technologies, and open and distance learning (ODL) methodologies. Headquartered in British Columbia, Canada, COL promotes innovation and works with Member States to facilitate learning for sustainable development. It is financed by voluntary contributions from Commonwealth governments.

Overview of the Position:

The Education Specialist: Higher Education conceptualizes, manages and implements programme initiatives to increase access to quality higher education leading to employment and entrepreneurship targeting marginalised groups, particularly women. The focus will be on strengthening higher education vis-à-vis Sustainable Development Goal 4 (SDG4). Activities include evidence-based advocacy for the development and implementation of ODL policy at both the national and institutional levels, technical assistance to develop systems and build capacity in dual-mode institutions and new open universities, leadership development, supporting the development of quality assurance models and processes, and promoting the adoption and use of open educational resources.

The Specialist will be a thought leader with a demonstrated ability to deliver results. S/he is expected to forge partnerships with regional and international organisations, collaborate with the private sector, provide advice to ministers, university presidents and other senior government officials, and act as a COL expert in higher education to advance COL's outcomes and impact.

Duties and Responsibilities:
